

Student Voice Summit 2018

Thursday 4th October 2018 | 9:30am – 4:30pm | Level 9, 142 Lambton Quay, Wellington

The third annual Student Voice Summit, jointly hosted by NZUSA, Te Mana Ākonga and AQA will be held in Wellington at AQA/Universities New Zealand (Level 9, 142 Lambton Quay) on Thursday 4 October 2018.

Objectives:

Professional development and knowledge transfer for incoming student administrations by:

- Learning from outgoing administrations, sharing good practices, ideas and updates on current issues,
- Gaining an overview of academic quality processes and academic decision making in the university sector, and
- Making connections among incoming administrations and between incoming administrations and quality professionals in universities.

Who should attend:

Incoming student administrations (from university student associations, Māori student associations, Pasifika student associations), particularly education vice-presidents (or equivalent).

Outgoing student administrations, particularly those who have been members of academic committees or involved in academic quality processes.

Student association staff, particularly those who support student voice on academic committees and in academic quality processes.

Quality professionals and other members of universities with responsibilities for student voice and student partnership in academic quality.

Cost:

$25.00 per person (including GST)
